The City of Chamblee

2008

Breakfast with Santa: Our annual FREE Christmas kick-off is being held on Saturday, December 13th. Reservations are required but Santa has time for 100 children each hour! Join us for breakfast at 9, 10, or 11 am and enjoy: A hot breakfast courtesy of McDonald's, Arts & Crafts, Face painting, Entertainment and a photo with the big man himself, Santa Claus! This year we have upgraded to digital prints – no more Polaroid's!! Take home a frame worthy photo for free! Call 770-986-5016 to make your reservations.

Senior Exemptions: Seniors over the age of 65 that qualify in 2009 for the Chamblee Senior Exemption can come to City Hall after January 1st to register for your exemption. Contact Linda McDaniel, Assistant City at 770-986-5010, ext 226, with any questions.

Keep Chamblee Beautiful is having the annual phone book and Christmas tree recycling on Sat Jan 3rd at the Chamblee Civic Center from 9am to 1pm. We have red cedars to give this year for recycling your tree. Bring one for the Chipper!

Time for Registration: Youth Sports registration will begin on Monday, January 5th for Chamblee residents and January 12 for everyone. Please visit our website for online registration instructions! Call 770-986-5016 for details.

VOTING: The runoff election is Tuesday, December 2nd. The polls are open 7:00am – 7:00pm.

Winter Camp for Kids - Camp will be held on December 22, 23, 29, and 30th. Activities will be held from 8:30 am - 3:30 pm but parents can drop off as early at 7:30 am and pick up as late as 6:00 pm. The cost is just $20 each day except the 30th which will cost $30 since it includes the field trip, an ice skating adventure and lunch! Call 770-986-5016 for more information

Chamblee's Antique Row District annual holiday open house will be held the first weekend in December 6-7, 2008. Merchants will be decorating with lights, Christmas decorations and other festive decorations. Come get in the Christmas spirit as you tour over 100 antique shops.
