—FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE—
12th ANNUAL TASTE OF CHAMBLEE RETURNS OCTOBER 5TH

August 29, 2019— We are making foodies’ dreams come true as the 12th Annual Taste of Chamblee returns to downtown Chamblee. There’s no better way to spend a warm October day than feasting on a spectacular smorgasbord of fare, enjoying a crisp brew and cheering on your favorite college football team. You can do all that and more on October 5, 2019, from 4:00 - 8:00 pm. This year’s cuisines will range from Indian to Middle Eastern to Mexican and deep fried Southern and all will celebrate the diverse restaurant community in Chamblee. In addition to the amazing food, a family-friendly kid zone will entertain children of all ages.

This year’s Taste of Chamblee is hosted by the City of Chamblee. “This is the City of Chamblee’s signature event and showcases our rich and diverse culture. We couldn’t be prouder of who we are as a community, and this event brings together our various cultures through food,” said City Manager Jon Walker.

Admission to the event is free, but featuring for a second year: wristbands, which cost $16.99 and are pre-loaded with 15 Taste Points. Taste Points may be redeemed at participating restaurant booths for a wide selection of tastings that range from 1 - 5 points per sample. Top-Up stations will be available on-site to add additional Taste Points for $1 each. Wristbands will be available for purchase on event day, or can be purchased at <https://www.freshtix.com/events/2019-taste-of-chamblee> .

Giant LED TVs with the afternoon’s hottest football games also will be onsite featuring the SEC and ACC games of the week.

Patrons are encouraged to take MARTA. The Gold Line runs to the Chamblee Station. Head north on Peachtree Road to enter the festival located at the corner of Peachtree Road and Broad Street. Shuttles also will run from the station and the Interactive College of Technology (5303 New Peachtree Rd). If driving, patrons also may park at MARTA’s Chamblee lot, where shuttles also will run.
