Qualifications for Appointment Discover Chamblee Advisory

In 2019, the City of Chamblee Mayor and City Council established the Discover Chamblee Advisory Committee to provide oversight of the budget and assist in the direction of projects being overseen by Discover DeKalb. The City of Chamblee is currently looking to appoint a community member to serve on the Discover Chamblee committee. The committee is responsible for:

- Acting principally in an advisory capacity to Chamblee staff, City Council and Discover DeKalb in any matter pertaining to marketing and tourism.
- Overseeing and make recommendations to Chamblee staff, City Council and Discover DeKalb staff regarding the Discover Chamblee budget.
- Advising and making recommendations to Chamblee staff and Discover DeKalb pertaining to marketing Chamblee’s hotels, restaurants and retail and encouraging tourism from various cities and states.

A background in communications, hospitality, marketing or tourism is preferred, but not required.

Interested individuals should submit an electronic version of this form, along with a resume to Brittney Lindsay, Community Engagement and Special Events Coordinator, blindsay@chambleega.gov by February 22, 2021.
